

Media Advisory

-- March 13, 2007 --

(ALBUQUERQUE, New Mexico) – Average winter snowpack, projected spring runoff, potential fire dangers and their effect on statewide recreational opportunities at New Mexico's rivers, lakes and state parks will be the focus of a joint news conference to be held in Albuquerque on March 19, 2007.

New Mexico State Engineer John D'Antonio, Secretary of Energy, Minerals and Natural Resources, Joanna Prukop, Secretary of Tourism Michael Cerletti, State Parks Division Director Dave Simon and New Mexico State Forester Arthur "Butch" Blazer will all be delivering remarks.

WHEN: Monday, March 19, 2007

WHERE: Rio Grande Nature Center
2901 Candelaria NW
Albuquerque, NM
West of Rio Grande Blvd on Candelaria
Signs will be posted directing you once you arrive.
If you need further directions please call the Rio Grande Nature Center at (505) 344-7240

TIME: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

CONTACT
FOR MORE
INFORMATION:

Maureen Haney, Public Relations Specialist
(505) 764-3864

#