

Media Advisory

-- March 13, 2008 --

(ALBUQUERQUE, New Mexico) – Substantial winter snowpack, projected spring runoff, potential fire dangers and their effect on statewide recreational opportunities at New Mexico's rivers, lakes and state parks will be the focus of a joint news conference to be held in Albuquerque on March 20, 2008.

New Mexico State Engineer John D'Antonio, Secretary of Tourism Michael Cerletti, State Parks Division Director Dave Simon and New Mexico State Forester Arthur "Butch" Blazer will all be delivering remarks.

WHEN: Thursday, March 20, 2008

WHERE: Albuquerque Open Space
Central and Tingley Blvd
Albuquerque, NM

From I-40 take the Rio Grande Blvd exit
Take Rio Grande south to Central Ave. turn right (west)
Continue on past the Aquarium until you reach the Tingley stoplight.
Make a right into the bottom large parking lot
Make an immediate u-turn and park in the smaller upper lot
Follow the signs down to the event site by the river.
Comfortable footwear and sunscreen is recommended.

TIME: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

CONTACT
FOR MORE
INFORMATION:

Maureen Haney, Public Relations Specialist
(505) 764-3864

# #