

2009 Groundwater Withdrawals in the Lower Rio Grande
Percentages Based on Meter Data, except for Domestic and Stock Wells, which are Estimated

* Meters are not typically required for single-family domestic wells and small wells supplying livestock. State Engineer records indicate that there are about 7,000 of these wells in the Lower Rio Grande, and it is estimated that these wells pump up to 2,400 acre-feet per year, total.