

Media Advisory

-- November 2, 2010 --

(PORTALES, New Mexico) – Residents of Eastern New Mexico are in a race against the failing Ogallala aquifer and the time it will take to provide a sustainable future water supply for the area.

A news conference will be held in Portales on November 4th to draw attention to the need for funding the Eastern New Mexico Rural Water System (ENMRWS) to serve the area.

State Engineer John D'Antonio will join several mayors and state legislators to speak about the need to continue funding for this project.

WHAT: News Conference – The Eastern New Mexico Rural Water Utility Authority Encourages Support for the Eastern New Mexico Rural Water System or “Ute Water Pipeline”

WHEN: November 4, 2010

TIME: 2:00 p.m.

PLACE: Yam Theater
121 South Main Ave. (between 1st and 2nd streets)
Portales, NM

CONTACT FOR MORE INFORMATION: Scott Verhines, (505) 263-4520 cell

Karin Stangl, Planning and Communication Director,
Office of the State Engineer, at (505) 699-4923 cell

#