V. Rights and Options of Water Right Owners

If you claim water rights in the Pojoaque Basin, you have the following rights and options:

1. You may become a Settlement Party (Option 1). If you become a Settlement Party, you will be entitled to the benefits of the Agreement, including the protections from priority calls by the Pueblos as described above in the Summary of Settlement Agreement. If you own a water right in a domestic well, you must also make an election about that well pursuant to Section 3.1.7.2 of the Agreement. That section requires that domestic water right owners elect one of three options as to whether, or when, they will connect to the planned Regional Water System and whether they will be eligible to receive funds from the State for the costs of connection to the system. The Notice of Domestic Well Election is part of the Acceptance form, so individuals wishing to become a settlement party need file only one document.

Original and two copies

You may become a Settlement Party by filing with the Court an original and two signed copies of the Acceptance of Settlement Agreement and Notice of Domestic Well Election ("Acceptance and Election"). An Acceptance and Election form is attached to this Order and available at the locations and websites specified below. You must file the original and two copies of the Acceptance and Election by taking the original and the two copies to the Clerk's Office at one of the United States Courthouses which are located at 120 South Federal Place in Santa Fe; 333 Lomas Blvd. NW, Suite 270 in Albuquerque; and 200 E. Griggs in Las Cruces. Those individuals who file in person must take an additional copy with them if they want a Court-stamped copy back.

You may also file your Acceptance and Election by mailing a signed original and two copies to:

Albuquerque, NM 87102

Make two copies to retain
