ORDER

This Order is entered sua sponte by the Special Master following the filing of the Joint Status Report by the State of New Mexico, ex rel. State Engineer (State) and the Jicarilla Apache Nation (April 11, 2011, Docket No. 10,029). The parties declare that the State requires an additional three to four weeks before its proposed consent order can be submitted to the Jicarilla Apache Nation for review, and that the Jicarilla Apache Nation will then require time to review the proposal. The parties further state that they will submit an agreed consent order or another status report describing their progress by June 17, 2011.

The matter of the Jicarilla Apache Nation’s state law-based water rights has been pending since 2004.¹ While I acknowledge the challenges which have been faced by the parties (changes of counsel, complexity of issues and factual claims, competing demands for scarce resources, and the like), it is long past time to conclude the adjudication of these subfiles. Accordingly, if the parties are unable to submit a signed consent order to this Court by June 17, 2011, they shall request a
