

SJ-17
Navajo letter

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April _____, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Cynthia Murray
Signature

4-7-04
Date

Cynthia Murray
Name (printed)

Organization

Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April _____, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Jim Donlop
Signature

Date

Jim Donlop
Name (printed)

ISC
Organization

#740 NM 170
Address

Farmington, N.M.

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April _____, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Michael B. Sullivan
Signature

4/1/04
Date

Michael B. Sullivan
Name (printed)

San Juan Agreement Fund org
Organization

P.O. Box 12044 Bloomfield
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

4/1/04
Date

James T. Rogers
Name (printed)

San Juan Agriculture Water Users Assoc
Organization

P.O. Box 39
Address
Waterflow, NM 87424

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

4/1/04
Date

Jerry Harwood
Name (printed)

City of Aztec
Organization

326 S. Main
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Mike D Arnold
Signature

4/1/04
Date

MIKE D ARNOLD
Name (printed)

CITY OF AZTEC
Organization

201 W CHACO ST
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Casimir Ruybalid
Signature

4/1/04
Date

CASIMIRO Ruybalid
Name (printed)

CITY OF Bloomfield
Organization

P.O. Box 1839
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April _____, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

David Velasquez
Signature

4/1/04
Date

David Velasquez
Name (printed)

City of Aztec
Organization

207 W. Chaco, Aztec NM 87410
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1 , 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

 RG Campbell
Signature

 4-1-04
Date

 Robert G. Campbell
Name (printed)

 City of Bloomfield
Organization

 915 N. 1st St, Bloomfield, NM
Address 87413

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1 , 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Lynne Raner
Signature

April 1, 2004
Date

Lynne Raner
Name (printed)

City of Bloomfield
Organization

915 North First St
Address
Bloomfield, NM 87413

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Carroll Crawford
Signature

4-1-2004
Date

CARROLL CRAWFORD
Name (printed)

BID
Organization

83 Rd 5295
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1 , 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

 4-1-03
Date

D. Randy Kirkpatrick
Name (printed)

San Juan Water Commission
Organization

7450 E Main, Suite B
Address

Farmington, N.M. 87402

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Joseph A. Schmitz
Signature

4/1/04
Date

Joseph A. Schmitz
Name (printed)

CITY OF FARMINGTON
Organization

800 MUNICIPAL DRIVE
Address
Farmington, NM 87401

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

APRIL 1, 2004

Date

BOB HUDSON

Name (printed)

CITY OF FARMINGTON

Organization

800 MUNICIPAL DRIVE

Address
FARMINGTON, N.M.

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Gary Risley
Signature

April 1, 2004
Date

Gary Risley
Name (printed)

Miller Statvent P.A.
Organization

300 W. Arrington, Suite 300
Address Farmington, NM 87401

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Loren V. Linville
Signature

4/1/04
Date

LOREN V. LINVILLE
Name (printed)

NORTH STAR Domestic Water
Organization

511 AZtec Blvd. NE. AZtec NM
Address

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April 1, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

4-1-2004
Date

LLOYD D. AYLIFFE
Name (printed)

NORTH STAR DOMESTIC WATER
Organization

511 AZTEC BLVD. NE
Address AZTEC, NM 87410

Acknowledgment of Confidentiality
and Disclaimer

CONFIDENTIAL BRIEFING

Undersigned acknowledges that the information received or discussed as part of the briefing by representatives of the State of New Mexico on April _____, 2004, regarding pending settlement issues between the State of New Mexico and the Navajo Nation in the San Juan stream adjudication, State of New Mexico v. United States, No. 75-134, San Juan County, New Mexico, are confidential and shall be treated as compromise negotiations under Rule of Evidence 408. Undersigned agrees not to disclose the contents of any information received or discussed during the briefing with any other person or party that has not executed this form Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer. Except for the provisions of Rule of Evidence 408, the terms of this Acknowledgment of Confidentiality and Disclaimer shall terminate once a revised proposed settlement agreement has been released hereafter. It is expressly understood that the governing bodies or authorities of the proposed signatories to the settlement, i.e., the United States, the Navajo Nation and the State of New Mexico, have not approved the proposed settlement agreement, including the draft partial final decree, draft settlement act and draft settlement contract.

Signature

4/1/04

Date

Jay B. Burnham

Name (printed)

City of Farmington

Organization

800 Municipal Dr

Address