The Navajo Nation Council will consider the SJR Basin Water Rights Settlement legislation on Wednesday, December 15.

From: John Utton [mailto:utton@newmexico.com]
Sent: Fri 12/10/2004 1:45 PM
To: Jay Burnham; Pat Page; dbloomfi@apsc.com; DSALIBA@apsc.com; KNORDLAN@apsc.com; RGRIMES@apsc.com; elmer.j.lincoln@bhpbilliton.com; rick.a.trost@bhpbilliton.com; JStomp@cabq.gov; spollack@cia-g.com; rgenuaidl@co.san-juan.nm.us; bid5@earthlink.net; mikehamman@espanola.com; mlcrockett@fisi.net; dchirigos@fsmtn.org; pmartin@fsmtn.org; pmontoia@fsmtn.org; pef@frylaw.us; Mike_Buntjer@fws.gov; bliesner@kelbli.com; mobrien@modrall.com; risley@mslaw.com; Bernadette Tsosie; John Leeper; dlopez@navajopride.com; WCharley@navajopride.com; jrogers923@netzero.com; SJordan@NordhausLaw.com; rstock@obil.net; jwhipple@ose.state.nm.us; swilliams@ose.state.nm.us; HCD@peoplepc.com; Herbert.Zinn@pinnaclewest.com; Karilee.Ramaley@pinnaclewest.com; CMURRAY@pnm.com; MLAVERY@pnm.com; RASHMAN@pnm.com; cycooper@qwest.net; watermaster@sjcounty.net; sjwcooffice@sjjc.org
Cc: Dayna Begay; Beth Fox; Ed Warner; John Simons; Larry Walden
Subject: Navajo Settlement documents now public

The final draft Navajo Settlement documents just went on the OSE Website under Hot Topics. I understand the Navajo Council is expected to consider the settlement next week and the ISC in January.